January 2024

Full of Christmas Spirit

We were full of Christmas spirit throughout December. Our residents were kept busy with a variety of holiday surprises and special activities.

Executive Director, Terrie Weible, and Dir. of Nursing, Cassie Scroggins, posed to show some of their festive spirit!

Christmas Lights Drive

Pictured is the group on the first of seven Christmas Light drives our activity director took our residents on. Our residents were not disappointed with the many beautiful displays. One of the favorites of course was the display at Our Lady of the Snow in Belleville.

Christmas Photo Shoot

Thank you goes out to Mary Jo of Hospice of Southern Illinois for assisting at the photo shoot for residents and families. They turned out so good, we are sorry we couldn't share all of them but here are a few.

Special Thanks

We are so blessed with a community and organizations that go above and beyond to make the holiday season special for our residents.

The American Legion Venice-Madison Post 307 for gifting our Veterans with Christmas gifts.

Special thanks to Ashley (First Lady) of Crown Vic Boys & Girls of STL Chapter 65 and the children of Silver Mays Crew who passed out cookies and Christmas cards to our residents.

Happy New Year!
